Important info if you're suspending your membership:

- There are some rules around suspending your membership for financial reasons, so please get in touch with us for more information
- The minimum time you can suspend your membership for overseas travel is 4 weeks, and the maximum time is 2 years
- After you restart your membership, you'll need to have active cover for at least 3 months before being able to suspend again
- If you're a high-income earner, the Medicare Levy Surcharge may still apply while your membership is suspended
- You aren't able to make claims while your membership is suspended
