

Social Media House Rules

These House Rules apply to all of our social media platforms - namely Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn & YouTube.

We don't love deleting posts from our pages, but we will if:

- it's hateful or discriminatory
- it's abusive or being used to harass someone
- it's threatening or uses violent language
- it's inappropriate, offensive or sexually explicit
- it violates someone's privacy
- it violates copyright or intellectual property rights
- it has damaging information (like medical advice that isn't right)
- you're trolling
- it's spam
- if you're trying to sell something
- if you're promoting a competitor
- if it is used as a means to commit family violence or violence in the workplace
